CL👔SET & PAN📦TRY

Maroon Meals is a program that informs current Mississippi State students about the availability of food on campus, including its location and how long it will be available.

- To opt in for Maroon Meals, follow these steps:
1. Download the myState app and log in with your MSU NetID and NetPassword.
  2. Under the Student, Faculty and Staff section, go to Notification Sign-Up.
  3. Turn the Maroon Meals slider to the "on" position and press Save. Make sure notifications are enabled for the myState app on your phone.
  4. Be on the lookout for your first Maroon Meals notification!

DONATE MEALS ↗

The Block by Block Program is a partnership between Aramark, the Dean of Students' Office, and Student Association. It serves to provide short-term assistance by allocating meals to students in need. Any students with a valid meal plan can donate up to three block meals per semester to this program.

REQUEST MEALS

Active students (currently enrolled) that do not have a valid active meal plan or flex dollars are eligible to apply and take part in the Block by Block Program. Aramark and the Dean of Students' Office reviews the application, determines eligibility, and notifies the student with a decision. If students qualify, their card will be loaded with 15 block meals (15 meals) that can be used at the Perry Cafeteria and/or the Fresh Food Company.
